It turns out that The history of Halloween started a long time ago and it is a lot more spookier than you thought. Halloween is on October 31st, the last day of the Celtic calendar. It was originally a pagan holiday, honoring the dead. Halloween was referred to as All Hallows Eve and dates back to over 2000 years ago. All Hallows Eve is the evening before All Saints Day, which was created by Christians to convert pagans, and is celebrated on November 1st. The Catholic church honored saints on this designated day.*

Foodies

Typical Spanish Food

Paella= One of the most famous Spanish dishes is, of course, paella. For an authentic paella, visit Valencia.

Tortilla Española= Tortilla Española is also known as "tortilla de patatas" where pre-fried potatoes are the main ingredients along with eggs.

Jamón Ibérico= Walk into any bar, let alone restaurant, in any part of Spain and you'll always see a ham.

Gazpacho= This tomato-based Andalusian soup is mostly famous for being served cold.

Fideuà= Fideuà is a type of Spanish pasta similar to vermicelli. It's popular in Catalonia and Valencia.

Churros= Churros are a popular snack made from fried dough pastry, cut into sausage shapes and doused in sugar. They're a favorite at fiestas, or street parties, when they're sold by roadside vendors. Dipping them in hot melted chocolate is pretty much more tasty. 😊
